

85th Annual Reunion

SHAMOKIN HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Saturday, June 1, 1968

To All Members of the Association:

A most cordial welcome to the 85th Annual Reunion Meeting of the Shamokin High School Alumni Association.

The officers of the association and the members of the Executive Committee have been planning for this meeting for several months, and I am sure that all their efforts will result in a successful reunion.

This organization is unique among high school alumni associations not only because of its size and activity, but also because of its interest in loan and scholarship aid to students. During the eighty-five years of its existence, this organization has become widely known and acclaimed for the many worthwhile public projects it has sponsored and completed.

The success of this organization in the past and at the present time is due to the energetic support of its members, financially and otherwise. Merely advising your class representatives and the association of your current mailing address, is a big help in keeping the records up to date. Your continued support and cooperation is of the utmost importance to the association and to your class.

Most sincerely,

FRANK S. MOSER
