81st Annual Reunion
Shamokin High School Alumni Association

CENTENNIAL YEAR

Nineteen years after Shamokin was incorporated as a borough, Shamokin High School Alumni Association staged its first reunion.

Little did the early graduates of the local high school know at that time that their organization would become one that would grow in size and prosper as the years rolled by. And little did they dream that the association would reach a point where it would observe its eighty-first annual reunion.

This is the Centennial year for the community of Shamokin, marking the 100th anniversary of its incorporation. Figuring prominently in Centennial activities will be many members of the Association. Although there are many elderly members still living, there are none who remember that date in May of 1883 when the first reunion was held.

During the Centennial, which will be observed between June 28 to July 4, the thoughts of many alumni members will go back through the years to recall names of their former classmates who have made a success in their chosen fields of endeavor. And it is worth noting that these successful men—and women, too—have never forgotten their school ties. Just as Shamokin High School is proud to claim these individuals as its graduates, so are these association members happy and proud to "tell the world" that they are graduates of S.H.S.

Shamokin High graduates have become internationally known top ranking army and navy officers. Some have made names for themselves in law and other professions, and many have been successful in a wide variety of businesses and enterprises.

And so Centennial year for Shamokin has a special meaning. It recalls many of its famous and distinguished sons are graduates of a high school that has an alumni association unusual in many respects. Most noteworthy is the fact that for 81 consecutive years the Association has met to honor and accept into membership current graduates, to shower praise on graduates who are still living and to pay respect to the memory of those who have gone before us.
