

Mary Sotterhall

Class of '82.

Emma L. Wolverton.

Edna L. Keller.

Harry M. Kurtz.

First Annual
COMMENCEMENT
SHAMOKIN

HIGH SCHOOL

—o—
G.A.R. Opera House.

—o—
MONDAY, MAY 29, 1882

Programme.

Overture—Grand Moon March - - Orchestra
 Invocation - - - - - Rev. T. J. Hacker
 Music—Frioli Galop - - - - - Bickoff
 Salutatory - - - - - Miss Edna L. Keller
 Coming Man, with Mantle Oration

Mr. H. M. Kurtz

Response - - - - Miss Elsie Llewellyn, '83
 Music—Emma Waltz - - - - - Boyer
 Recitation—"Nell" - - - Miss Edna L. Keller
 Valedictory - - - Miss Emma L. Wolverton
 *Awarding of Prizes - - - - - Principal
 Mathematical Prize, Senior Class - H. M. Kurtz
 Philosophical Prize, Junior Class Emma K. Beury
 English Prize, Freshman Class - Lizzie S. Taylor
 Presentation of Diplomas President VanGasken
 Music—Pretty as a Pink - - - - Rollinson

*Prizes offered G. W. Ryon, Esq., David Llewellyn, W. F. Harpel.

LIGHTHEART'S PILGRIMAGE.

An Allegorical Drama.

CAST OF CHARACTERS.

Lighthouse, the Pilgrim, - Lizzie Wagenseller
 Conscience, the Guide, - - - Nettie Thomas
 Frivolita, Queen of the Valley of Pleasure,
 Lillie Leisy
 Mirth, Sport, Folly, Falsehood, Shame and other
 Dwellers in the Valley.
 Celesta, Guardian of the Height of Wisdom,
 Carrie Haas
 Reason, Religion and other Dwellers on the Height.

SYNOPSIS.

"Lighthouse's Pilgrimage" is an allegorical drama, in which Lighthouse, journeying through life, arrives at a place at which her road separates—one leading to the "Valley of Pleasure," over which Queen Frivolita presides—the other to the "Height of Wisdom," guarded by Celesta. Both guardians come forward to persuade Lighthouse to choose their road. Lighthouse being mortal, takes the "Road to Pleasure," but on being confronted by the dwellers, repents and wisely chooses the "Road to Wisdom."

Parting Song - - - - - School
 Benediction - - - - - Rev. S. Chevers