

"FAREWELL SONG."

Words by R. J. BEAMISH.

Music by D. PROTHEROE, Mus. Bac.

Written for and Dedicated to the Class of '93.

Oh, friends of our happiest moments,
The time for our parting is nigh,
Oh scene of our loftiest dreamings,
We bid thee farewell with a sigh.

The sorrow of parting soon over
Will yet leave imprints on the mind,
And when years have passed in this mem'ry
A mellow, sweet pleasure we'll find.

A mist falls 'tween us and Life's Springtime,
'Twill gather in thickness with time,
But moments will come when thro' op'nings
The bells of our mem'ries will chime,
The bells will chime, the bells will chime, will chime.

The bells may ring sorrow or gladness,
But 'mongst all one sweet chime will rise,
The chime that recalls our school-parting,
When tears came unsought to our eyes,
When tears came unsought to our eyes.

93's MOTTO:

"Patience is bitter, but its fruit is sweet."
