EARNED INCOME TAX (Current & Delinquent)

State law requires Pennsylvania residents with earned income, wages and/or net profits, to file an annual local earned income tax return and supply income and withholding documentation, such as a W-2. Even if you have employer withholding or are not expecting a refund, you must file an annual tax return.

If you are a Wage Earner/Salaried Employee

Pennsylvania employers are required by law to withhold earned income tax from all employees' pay. Your employer must obtain and report certain information about your residence and your PA work location and withhold the correct amount of earned income tax.

Online filing is available at efile.KeystoneCollects.com

If you are Self-Employed or Employed Outside of PA

If you are self-employed, have earnings reported on Form 1099, or work outside of PA and your employer does not withhold your earned income tax, you must report your income and pay your tax quarterly.

Report and pay quarterly estimates online at efile.KeystoneCollects.com

If you are an Employer

You are required to withhold earned income tax from your employees' compensation.

Keystone's Business Portal is the quickest way to report EIT withholding. You can file your quarterly payroll withholding online and pay online or by mail

Local Earned Income Tax Annual Final Return Form and Instructions

Tax forms and filing instructions are sent to resident taxpayers annually. Tax forms and instructions are available online at keystonecollects.com/form/annual-final-return/

LOCAL SERVICES TAX (Current & Delinquent)

Local Services Tax (LST) is imposed where the employee works, regardless of where the employee lives. The tax is assessed during each payroll period and is withheld proportionately for the number of payroll periods within the calendar year. Pennsylvania law requires employers to withhold and report employee LST. Quarterly payroll withholding and payment is due within 30 days after the close of the calendar quarter. First quarter payment is due to the Tax Officer on or before April 30.

Business payments can be remitted online at business.KeystoneCollects.com

Individuals remitting LST should access the Local Services Tax form

BUSINESS PRIVILEGE / MERCANTILE TAX (Current & Delinquent)

Business privilege and mercantile taxes are levied by the municipality and/or school district in which a business is located and are either flat rate or more typically based on the gross receipts of such a business.

The tax may be imposed on each dollar of gross annual receipts for a business within the taxing district, whether for gain or profit including financial businesses, professions, vocations, services, construction, or other commercial activities.

Access Keystone Collections Group Business Privilege Forms and search for our area to locate the required form and due dates.

PER CAPITA (Delinquent)

Per capita tax is a fixed amount charged annually to each adult residing within the taxing jurisdiction. Taxpayers who failed to remit payment are notified of their delinquent tax and instructed on how to remit payment.

Payments can be made at pay.keystonecollects.com
